

Young Moms Are Moving Forward.

If this is what you think when you look at teen moms...

Easy

Unfit to be mothers

welfare scammers

Ignorant & lazy

going nowhere

Uneducated

THINK AGAIN.

We work hard

We're juggling school, work, and so much more

We aren't afraid to ask for help

We're scared, but doing our best

We're moving up;

making a good life for ourselves

We love our kids. We'll do anything for them.

YM2 is a youth engagement project that builds on the strengths of young pregnant and parenting women.
